FINAL DETERMINATION AND RIGHT TO SUE NOTICE

Pursuant to 19 Del. C. § 710, et seq., the parties in the above-captioned matter are hereby Noticed of the Department's Final Determination and Right to Sue Notice, as follows:

Reasonable Cause Determination and Notice of Mandatory Conciliation.

In this case, the Department has completed its investigation and found that there is reasonable cause to believe that an unlawful employment practice has occurred. Under the provisions of the law, the parties are now required to engage in mandatory conciliation with Theodore R. Robinson. Please be prepared to appear for conciliation on the following date and time Monday April 11, 2005 at 1:00 p. m. at the location of 4425 North Market Street Wilmington, DE 19809.

Your cooperation and good faith effort is anticipated. Your corresponding Delaware Right to Sue Notice will be effective one day after your compliance with the conciliation effort.

The reasonable cause finding is based primarily on the following facts:

In a Discrimination case, Charging Party must prove that she was treated less favorably/terminated based on her sex and pregnancy. The evidence provided in this case established that Charging Party was discharged in a discriminatorily biased manner based upon her sex and pregnancy. According to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 Charging Party must successfully established that the Respondent did not hold open her employment position for her pregnancy related absence. The evidence did show that the Respondent ended the employment relationship prior to the conclusion of Charging Party's scheduled maternity leave. Respondent offered an explanation but did not provide sufficient evidence to support their position. Therefore, Charging Party has met her burden of proof in this case.

This Final Determination is hereby issued on behalf of the Department of Labor, Division of Industrial Affairs, Discrimination Unit. See the attached Notice of Rights.

§ 714. Civil action by the Charging Party; Delaware Right to Sue Notice; election of remedies.

(a) A Charging Party may file a civil action in Superior Court, after exhausting the administrative remedies provided herein and receipt of a Delaware Right to Sue Notice acknowledging same.

(b) The Delaware Right to Sue Notice shall include authorization for the Charging Party to bring a civil action under this Chapter in Superior Court by instituting suit within ninety (90) days of its receipt or within ninety (90) days of receipt of a Federal Right to Sue Notice, whichever is later.

(c) The Charging Party shall elect a Delaware or federal forum to prosecute the employment discrimination cause of action so as to avoid unnecessary costs, delays and duplicative litigation. A Charging Party is barred by this election of remedies from filing cases in both Superior Court and the federal forum. If the Charging Party files in Superior Court and in a federal forum, the Respondent may file an application to dismiss the Superior Court action under this election of remedies provision.

RE: Leave of Absence

Dear Renée;

I am writing in regards to your sudden leave of absence wherein you indicated you would be on maternity leave for six (6) weeks. I have several concerns regarding this issue.

First, you are well aware of our company policy that requires you to have prior written authorization signed by myself before any time off from your duties is permissible. For absences in excess of three (3) days, all employees are required to submit a request at least four (4) weeks prior to your intended date of leave. In accordance with the law, you must provide us with a written doctor's notice indicating that you require such time off. As of this date, you have not provided us with either of the above.

Our greater concern is that you told fellow co-workers, whom are willing to testify, that you never had any intentions of returning at all from your maternity leave. In fact you have sought and apparently accepted employment elsewhere. At this point, I feel I must make a professional employment decision based on information that I have. I have determined that you have terminated your employment with Lawns Unlimited, effective December 23, 2003, when you left the premises cleaning out your desk and taking all of your belongings.

Per conversation with our health insurance representative, your coverage disenrollment date is December 23, 2003. However, provided the insurance company will allow, Lawns Unlimited will extend your health insurance coverage through December 31, 2003. We will pay the premium for that extension on your behalf. I believe your main concern was covering the delivery of the baby. Having had your baby on December 30, 2003, this extension will allow those costs to be covered. Lawns Unlimited has now incurred a much higher premium as a result of your working for us for one (1) year and using the insurance to pay bills estimated to be in excess of $23,000.00, then leaving the company. Lawns Unlimited has never been in the practice of denying benefits to any employee. However, it is our belief that an employee will do as they say and stay long term with our company. We are disappointed when we see an employee, such as yourself, take advantage of the benefits, hours and overtime, etc. that we offer and abuse those privileges.

We wish you well with your new baby. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me.

Respectfully Submitted,

The following is a brief synopsis of all of the events leading up to my contacting you for representation.

My name is Renee Butz; I started working for Lawns Unlimited LTD in September 2002 as the Office Manager. When I found out that I was pregnant in June 2003, I advised my employer (Ed and Jeanne Fleming) that same day. The Flemings and I discussed my plans to return to work after my maturity leave. I was to educate the office assistant on all my responsibilities before I left. As my due date came closer, the Fleming's started making comments and references to Jeanne being at stay home mother and how she did not decide this until after the birth of their first child. Also, comments were made to the fact that my husband was laid off when working for a company in Delmar, MD but was accepting a job in Wilmington. We were looking for a place that was half way between our jobs. They made comments of how anyone could commute more than half hour to work. I told them they I use to drive an hour to get to work before moving to Bethany Beach with my husband (Scott). Then comments were made about my overtime. I would come in early and/or leave late, worked through my lunch to get a lot of work done due to tax season, software conversion, projects, and training the office assistant on my responsibilities. Ed started deducting my overtime without prior notice but demanded certain work to be done before leaving. My doctor appointments were made up during my lunch hour most of the time. Due to the high-risk pregnancy, I was put on pelvic rest. This demanded more appointments. Ed and Jeanne had no problems with me leaving and making up the time, which I always did.

On December 23, 2003, I woke up around 5:30 AM in pain. I got myself ready for work and went to the hospital to make sure I was ok. The nurse told me I was 3 cm dilated and was told that I could have this baby anytime and that I should not be driving long distances. I got to work on time and advised Ed and Jeanne that I would be leaving around 12:00PM, noon, and will be starting my maternity leave. My husband and mother came to pick me up. As they were pulling in the driveway, Ed was leaving and waived to them. He also called me by radio and announced, "Your ambulance is here". I went over all the items with Debbie, the assistant I trained, and advised everyone that if they

NOTICE TO THE PERSON AGGRIEVED:

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and/or the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): This is your Notice of Right to Sue, issued under Title VII and/or the ADA based on the above-numbered charge. It has been issued at your request. Your lawsuit under Title VII or the ADA must be filed in federal or state court WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this Notice. Otherwise, your right to sue based on this charge will be lost. (The time limit for filing suit based on a state claim may be different.)

- ☒ More than 180 days have passed since the filing of this charge.
- ☐ Less than 180 days have passed since the filing of this charge, but I have determined that it is unlikely that the EEOC will be able to complete its administrative processing within 180 days from the filing of the charge.
- ☒ The EEOC is terminating its processing of this charge.
- ☐ The EEOC will continue to process this charge.

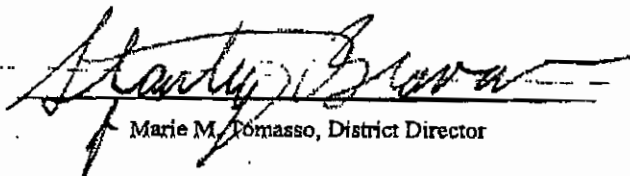

Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA): You may sue under the ADEA at any time from 60 days after the charge was filed until 90 days after you receive notice that we have completed action on the charge. In this regard, the paragraph marked below applies to your case:

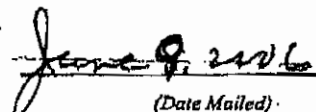

- ☐ The EEOC is closing your case. Therefore, your lawsuit under the ADEA must be filed in federal or state court WITHIN 90 DAYS of your receipt of this Notice. Otherwise, your right to sue based on the above-numbered charge will be lost.

Equal Pay Act (EPA): You already have the right to sue under the EPA (filing an EEOC charge is not required.) EPA suits must be brought in federal or state court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment. This means that backpay due for any violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible.

If you file suit based on this charge, please send a copy of your court complaint to this office.
